

Laural Miller is a dynamic trainer, facilitator, leader and coach. She has 15 years of leadership experience in Reading area's commercial and non-profit sectors.

With a Master's Degree in Business Administration, she is a proud graduate of RACC and Alvernia University. Laural also holds her Professional Certified Coach (PCC) credential through the International Coaching Federation.

As a leader in training and development and operations, Laural fulfills her passion of developing others to their full potential through workshops, private coaching clients and working as an adjunct for local colleges.

She specializes in leadership development ranging from first time supervisors to executive level coaching.