

Laural Miller is a dynamic leader, trainer, facilitator, and coach. She has 15 years of leadership experience in the Greater Reading Area's business and non-profit sectors.

She holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration and is a proud graduate of RACC and Alvernia University. Laural is also a Professional Certified Coach (PCC) credentialed through the International Coaching Federation.

As a leader in training, development, and operations, Laural fulfills her passion for developing current and future leaders through workshops, private coaching sessions, and adjunct assignments at local colleges.

Laural's in-depth expertise is readily apparent to workshop attendees who seek to increase workplace productivity, enhance positive communication, build healthy workplace relationships, and nurture an enduring, cohesive workplace culture.

She specializes in leadership development ranging from first-time supervisors to executive-level coaching.

Laural is most proud of her numerous success stories involving local leaders who worked to unlock their potential and achieve life-long goals.